2. Rescheduling the activities.
3. About the Algerian Budget.

3 Absent participants

None

4 Introduction

All presenters from all partner were present, we have started to discuss the rescheduling for the activities, we have missed two activities one in Jordan and the other in Palestine, both was very difficult to do due to the circumstances of our partners, the Palestinians who needed permits to enter into Jordan and other needed new permits. As concerning the activity in Palestine, Jericho is under siege by the Israeli defense forces and it is closed, and the Palestinian partners could not host any of the partners due for security reasons.

5 Meetings discussed points

1. Rescheduling activities.
2. To contact the EACEA office in regards of the budget of Algeria.
3. We have rescheduled visits to Jordan at the end of May and beginning of June 2023
4. Palestinian activities have been postponed until the situation is better.

6 Challenges and Recommendations

Clouse on Jericho by the Israeli defense forces made it impossible to have any meeting at the University of Istiqlal at that time, in April, so we are meeting in Jordan in May and June.

We have decided that the partner countries can make field visit for both Jordan and Palestine, the Jordanian field visit will take place in April, the Palestinian field visit will be discussed later when the situation of the Palestinian area is open for foreigners and secure.

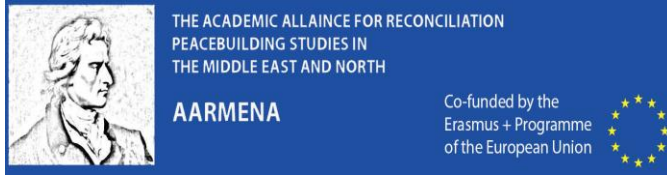

7 Next activities presentations

A field visit to happen in mid April 14-15-16.April. 2023 in AMMAN.

8 At the meeting end, the partners agreed on the following points:

1. We have to discuss a field visit for each partner to check the progress of the project in each university in the partner country.
2. The European Partners will visit Jordanian partners in mid-April 2023
3. The reschedule for the management meeting with all partner between 28-May until 5.june, the venue will happen in Jordan.
4. Palestinian field visit to take place when the area is less violent, and not in closure as it is in the same time.
